

Violinist Alexandra Bons-Mashina is a versatile artist, active as a soloist, chamber and orchestra musician. She performs frequently as a soloist and chamber musician with her own Calliope String Trio and is first violinist with the Residentie Orchestra.

Alexandra is co-founder and artistic producer of the Podium Calliope Foundation. A foundation that is bustling with many cultural, social and educational projects.

She completed the full official training for Music Together. Alexandra is married to conductor and music teacher Marco Bons and has two children.