

Miss Olya is a professional musician. She has traveled all over the world and lived in four countries. She has been with Music Together for nearly 25 years, at first as an assistant, then as a parent, and finally as a teacher and a center director. Miss Olya has two young children, who grew up singing and dancing with the Music Together collections, and she wishes to share the beautiful experience of bonding through music with other families.